

Educational Offerings

In Case You Missed it During Quarantine: New Developments in the Receivables Management World
May 19 – 9:00am PT/11:00am CT/12:00pm ET
One (1) RMAI Education Credit toward Certification/Recertification

Sponsored By:

How about a webinar that does NOT address COVID-19 developments? These are unprecedented times for sure and while various federal, state and local governments have issued pandemic specific orders and regulations that impact our industry there are still important things happening in the rest of our world. Join our panel of experts who will discuss recent developments in the FDCPA, TCPA and state consumer protection statutes as well as recently enacted and pending legislation addressing privacy rights that impact the collection of receivables.

Pricing:

Member: *Free

*One free registration per member company; additional registrations as member rate

Non – Member: $94

Register

Course Presenters:

Eric Rosenkoetter is a Principal with Maurice Wutscher LLP and is based in the firm's Austin office. He primarily focuses his practice on regulatory compliance and leads the firm's Audit Section. Eric earned his law degree from Washington University in St. Louis and his business degree from Southern Methodist University. He is admitted to practice law in Texas and Missouri and all U.S. District Courts in Texas.

Tomio B. Narita is a partner with the California law firm, Simmonds & Narita LLP. His practice focuses on defending creditors, debt buyers, collection law firms and collection agencies in consumer litigation in federal and state courts throughout the country, including in class actions arising under the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), and other federal and state laws governing the credit and collection process. Mr. Narita also provides compliance advice relating to collection issues and is a frequent speaker at events relating to the collection industry. He obtained his law degree in 1991 from the University of California, Hastings College of the Law. He is a member of the Bar of the State of California, and is admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the Second, Third and Ninth Circuit Courts of Appeals, the District of Colorado, the Northern District of Illinois and all of the District Courts of California.

Greg Woodford is the General Counsel of Absolute Resolutions Corp.. In this role his work focuses on the analysis of regulatory compliance standards, the guidance of business and operational functions of the company, development of strategies to comply with those regulatory standards, and general risk analysis and mitigation. He has helped Absolute develop, refine and implement both internal and external management programs designed to ensure compliance with the ever changing regulatory standards landscape. He is an RMAI Certified Receivables Compliance Professional (CRCP).

Before joining Absolute, he was the General Counsel of Razor Capital, LLC and he worked in private practice where his clients included community banks that he counseled in their lending and collection activities. Greg graduated cum laude from Hamline University – School of Law in 2007 and is admitted to practice law in the state and federal courts for the State of Minnesota.