Borrowing Statute

§ 27-2-503, 504, 505

§ 27-2-503 Conflict of laws -- limitation periods. (1) Except as provided by 27-2-505, if a claim is substantively based:

(a) upon the law of one other state, the limitation period of that state applies; or

(b) upon the law of more than one state, the limitation period of one of those states chosen by this part applies.

(2) The limitation period of Montana applies to all other claims.

§ 27-2-504. Rules applicable to computation of limitation period. If the statute of limitations of another state applies to the assertion of a claim in Montana, the other state's relevant statutes and other rules of law governing tolling and accrual apply in computing the limitation period but its statutes and other rules of law governing conflict of laws do not apply.

§ 27-2-505. Unfairness. If a court determines that the limitation period of another state applicable under 27-2-503 and 27-2-504 is substantially different from the limitation period of Montana and has not afforded a fair opportunity to sue upon, or imposes an unfair burden in defending against, the claim, the limitation period of Montana applies.
