Course Presenters:

Dara Tarkowski concentrates her practice on the defense of creditors in litigation and regulatory matters, including matters involving the FDCPA, FCRA, TCPA, state consumer protection laws, licensing, and regulatory advocacy. Dara acts as outside general counsel to debt buyers and collection agencies and counsels her debt collection and debt buying clients with respect to policies and procedures, preparation for regulatory audits and CFPB exams, and responding to consumer complaints.

Greg Woodford is the General Counsel of Absolute Resolutions Corp. In this role his work focuses on the analysis of regulatory compliance standards, the guidance of business and operational functions of the company, development of strategies to comply with those regulatory standards, and general risk analysis and mitigation. He has helped Absolute develop, refine and implement both internal and external management programs designed to ensure compliance with the ever-changing regulatory standards landscape. He is an RMAI Certified Receivables Compliance Professional (CRCP).

Ed Gehres is General Counsel of 777 Partners, where he provides both strategic business advice and legal counsel to its portfolio companies. Mr. Gehres has over 20 years of experience in law and policy, including work as a trial lawyer on several landmark mass torts and products liability cases, innovative work in complex settlements, the design and execution of crisis response and public policy campaigns for highly-regulated industries, and a wealth of experience in the consumer finance industry. Prior to joining 777 Partners, Mr. Gehres was a partner and practice group leader at Van Ness Feldman LLP and before that at Patton Boggs LLP. Mr. Gehres also recently served as outside General Counsel to Think Finance.
