Course Presenters:

Manny Newburger leads the Consumer Financial Services Law Practice Group at Barron & Newburger, P.C. A well-known author and speaker on the FDCPA and similar laws, Mr. Newburger is known nationally for his expertise in consumer and commercial law, consulting on FDCPA, FCRA, and TCPA compliance across the globe and on the defense of individual and class consumer litigation across the United States. His practice focuses on litigation, litigation management and strategy, and regulatory defense and compliance, and he serves as a settlement negotiator in complex cases. Mr. Newburger has consulted to collection industry members throughout the U.S., India, the Philippines, and Canada, and his clients include financial institutions, debt buyers, law firms, and collection agencies.

Nicole M. Strickler concentrates her practice in the defense of corporations in civil matters but particularly focuses in the defense of consumer litigation throughout the country. This includes representing clients in both individual and class actions involving state and federal consumer laws, including the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act ("FDCPA"), Fair Credit Reporting Act, Telephone Consumer Protection Act and the Illinois Collection Agency Act. She also has substantial experience in defending corporations and individuals in claims brought under state and federal employment laws including Title VII, Section 1983, the Illinois Wage and Payment Act, and the Illinois Unemployment Insurance Act. Ms. Strickler is an active member of ACA International, Receivables Management Association International (RMAI), and holds a position on the Board of Directors of The National Creditors Bar Association ("NCBA").
