

Educational Offerings

A First Look at the NY Debt Collector Licensure Bill

DATE – 9:00am PT/11:00am CT/12:00pm ET

One (1) RMAI Education Credit toward Certification/Recertification

On January 21 New York Governor Andrew Cuomo proposed the licensure of companies engaged in debt collection. Aside from licensing debt collectors, the bill also proposes new disclosures and restrictions on debt collection some of which would prohibit the CFPB's proposed limited content message and email communication rules.

The panelists will also explore the proposed licensing process and RMAI's efforts in response to the Governor's proposal.

Pricing:

Member: $64***

(*This is not part of RMAI's regularly scheduled monthly webinars)

Non – Member: $94

Register

Course Presenters:

Don Maurice is a partner at Maurice Wutscher representing the financial services industry in compliance matters, trials and appeals of individual and class actions. Don is a Regent of the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers and serves on the Governing Committee of the Conference on Consumer Finance Law. He formerly chaired the Debt Collection Practices and Bankruptcy Subcommittee of the American Bar Association and serves as outside counsel to Receivables Management Association International, the trade association for the receivables management industry. He is admitted to the Bars of Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey and the District of Columbia and has practiced law since 1988.

David Reid serves as Director of Government Affairs & Policy for the Receivables Management Association International (RMAI). In this capacity, David manages the state legislative, regulatory, and advocacy activities of the association. David also serves as staff liaison to the RMAI Certification Council and its Standards and Remediation Committees. David is a graduate of Canisius College and Albany Law School. He is admitted to the New York and New Jersey bars.