

State Legislative Update – A Year Like No Other

September 2, 2020 – 9:00am PT/11:00am CT/12:00pm ET

One (1) RMAI Education Credit toward Certification/Recertification

Despite a shortened state legislative calendar due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the receivables management industry has seen a record number of laws passed at the state level in 2020. Significant laws were adopted in Colorado, the District of Columbia, Maryland, Maine, New York, Virginia, and Washington within the first half of the year. Additional laws may still be adopted in California, Massachusetts, New York, and Ohio before year's end. Learn how these new and proposed laws can impact your operations and how RMAI is responding.

Pricing:

Register

Special Member Pricing – Legislative Fund Donors*

- Complimentary unlimited registrations for members contributing $500 or more September 1, 2019 to September 1, 2020, or $5,000 or since January 1, 2019, to RMAI's Legislative Fund.

*Members may donate to the Legislative Fund now to meet the $500 contribution requirement for complimentary unlimited registrations.

Regular Member Pricing – Non-Legislative Fund Donors

- $99 per registration for members contributing less than $500 to RMAI's Legislative Fund

Not available to non-members.

Course Presenters:

Natalie O. Ludaway is a partner in Crowell & Moring, LLP's Washington, D.C. office and a member of its State Attorneys General Enforcement & Investigations and Advertising & Media groups. During her five years (2015-2020) as Chief Deputy of the Office of Attorney General (OAG) for the District of Columbia, Natalie oversaw multistate and single jurisdiction investigations, enforcement, and litigation matters in all areas of AG authority. For nearly 20 years prior to joining OAG, Natalie maintained an active private practice focused on complex civil litigation, employment, and regulatory matters.

Donald Maurice is a partner at national financial services law firm Maurice Wutscher LLP. For nearly 30 years, Don has counseled the financial services industry in defense and compliance matters. Don serves on the governing Board of Regents of the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers and on the Governing Committee of the Conference on Consumer Finance Law. He is outside counsel to RMAI and was the chair of the ABA's Debt Collection Practices and Bankruptcy Subcommittee, Business Law Section from 2014 to 2017. He is admitted to the Bars of Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey and the District of Columbia.

Jon Mazzoli is currently the Chief Business Development Officer of Resurgent Capital Services. He has been in the Receivables Management Industry off and on for more than 20 years and has worked with the Sherman Financial Group for the last 10+ years. His prior industry experience included working on the initial roll up of Outsourcing Solutions Inc., as well as purchasing for small personal entities. Jon has an MBA from Northwestern University, a Law Degree from the University of Florida College of Law, and a BS in Finance from the University of Florida College of Business Administration.