

Educational Offerings

Data Security for SMEs: Tips for Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises

March 8, 2023 – 9:00am PT/12:00pm ET

One (1) RMAI Education Credit

Small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) might find data security challenging, especially given the state and federal laws imposing varying requirements for businesses handling non-public personal information. Learn from these experts how to overcome data security challenges as they discuss data security methods used by small and medium-sized businesses (and law firms), identify resources available to assist, and share thoughts on cyber insurance.

This webinar will also address RMAI's certification standard on Data Security Policy (A7).

Pricing:

Member: Free

Non – Member: $94

Register

Course Presenters:

John Bedard is an AV rated attorney and nationally recognized authority on the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and the Fair Credit Reporting Act. He serves as counsel to several professional trade associations, including the Georgia Collectors Association. John is a nationally recognized speaker and travels the country training collectors and educating industry associations, clients, and vendors who provide products and services to the industry.

Katrina Christakis has been representing financial services institutions for over 25 years. A prolific author in the area of consumer finance, she's also frequently invited to speak on litigation trends and class action topics at conferences across the U.S. From 2018-2021, she served as Chair of the ABA's Consumer Financial Services Committee and is currently the Treasurer of the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers and a member of the RMAI Legal Affairs Working Group.

Stephanie Platzman-Diamant is Senior Operations Counsel at Cavalry Portfolio Services, LLC, where she provides legal support to all business units. Prior to Cavalry, she was a litigator at two national law firms. She is a graduate of New York University School of Law.