House Bill \(HB\) 284, signed into law in Wyoming in 2023, has brought significant alterations to the licensing landscape for the receivables management industry. As of July 1, 2023, Wyoming requires debt buyers to be licensed as collection agencies. Join us as moderator, Manny Newburger, and webinar panelists, Bradley Chapman and Joel May, provide valuable insights into the implications of HB 284 and walk through the application process and requirements. Topics to be covered include:

- A high-level overview of HB 284
- Understanding requirements of the application process
- Potential challenges you may encounter during the application process
- Q&A with our speakers to help answer questions about becoming licensed or maintaining licensing in Wyoming
