

Insights into the Consumer Debt Default Judgments Act

February 21 – 9:00am PT/12:00pm ET

One (1) RMAI Education Credit

This past July the Uniform Law Commission adopted the Consumer Debt Default Judgments Act.

The Act would materially modify existing procedures for obtaining default judgments on many types of consumer debt, including new notice requirements and the inclusion of certain documents and data in judgment applications. On February 13, 2024, a bill was introduced in Colorado that would adopt the Act, and it is anticipated several states will follow.

Our panel includes Raymond Pepe, Esq, who chaired the committee that drafted the Act. The panel also includes Franci Wayland of PRA and Don Maurice, RMAI's outside counsel. They will discuss RMAI's role in the drafting of the Act and, in particular, how the Act aligns with RMAI Receivables Management Certification Program standards.

Pricing:

Member: Free

Non – Member: $94

Register

Course Presenters:

| | |
|--|---|
| | Don Maurice is a partner at Maurice Wutscher LLP representing the financial services industry in compliance matters, trials and appeals of individual and class actions with offices throughout the United States. He is admitted to the Bars of Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, and the District of Columbia and has practiced law since 1988. Don has been inducted into the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers and serves on the Governing Committee of the Conference on Consumer Finance Law. Don also serves as RMAI’s outside legal counsel. |
| | Raymond Pepe is Of Counsel at K&L Gates and has a varied practice that includes the representation of clients before a wide variety of state agencies, particularly involving adjudicative, regulatory and government affairs matters, as well as general corporate representation and litigation. His clients include financial institutions, public utilities, health care providers, real estate developers and non-profit associations. His practice focuses on the regulation of financial institutions, legislative and regulatory analysis and advocacy, state and local taxation, unclaimed property, political action committee regulation, lobbying registration and reporting, professional licensure, environmental regulation, and government contracts. |
| | Franci Wayland is Vice-President, Public Policy and Government Relations at PRA Group, Inc. (PRA) and has over fifteen years of experience in the consumer financial services industry with a focus on government affairs, government relations, public policy, legal and regulatory compliance. She is responsible for the day-to-day management of the state government relations team at PRA. She also works with senior leadership and internal business partners to develop the legislative policy agenda for the company and is responsible for the overall planning, organization and execution of PRA's government affairs strategies and activities at the state and local level. |