

Educational Programs

D.C. Download: Behind the Headlines on Capitol Hill, CFPB, and DOGE

April 29, 2025 – 9:00am PT/12:00pm ET

One (1) RMAI Education Credit

Join us for an exclusive update on the latest developments out of Washington, D.C.—from Capitol Hill to key regulatory agencies. This informative webinar will cover recent activity in Congress, including key legislative priorities such as Congressional Review Act resolutions and CFPB oversight and funding. You'll also hear updates on regulatory actions, agency agendas, and legal challenges shaping the financial services landscape.

Don't miss this opportunity to gain the insights you need to stay informed and engaged.

Pricing:

Member: Free

Non – Member: $94

Register

Course Presenters:

Mike Becker is the Executive Director of the Receivables Management Association International (RMAI), a nonprofit trade association that represents more than 600 companies that support the purchase, sale, and collection of performing and nonperforming receivables on the secondary market. Mike joined RMAI in May 2024 and oversees all aspects of the organization's operations, including the RMAI Certification Program, advocacy, strategic planning, membership development, and financial management.

Ryan Carney is a government affairs advisor and a member of the Public Policy and Law practice. Prior to joining the firm, Ryan served as the Chief of Staff for Congressman Bryan Steil (R-WI) and former Congressman Tom MacArthur (R-NJ). Through these roles, he worked directly with the House Financial Services, Armed Services, Natural Resources, and Administration Committees. He served as a staff director for the House Select Committee on Economic Disparity. Ryan has delivered several key bills into public law, and raised funds for political candidates' campaigns. Before his time on Capitol Hill.

Daniel Crowley is a partner in K&L Gates' Washington, D.C. office. He leads the firm's global financial services policy practice. In the decade before joining K&L Gates, he led the government relations efforts at the Investment Company Institute, The Nasdaq Stock Market, and the National Association of Securities Dealers. Previously, he served as general counsel to then-House Speaker Newt Gingrich, and to House Oversight Committee Chairman Bill Thomas. Dan also serves as RMAI's Federal Counsel.

Bruce Heiman with K&L Gates, LLP engages in a wide-ranging federal counseling and lobbying practice. He has represented leading companies and trade associates in technology, financial services, postal, trade and manufacturing industries. He is nationally ranked as a top government relations lawyer by both Chambers USA and The Legal 500. He regularly assists clients design and implement a Washington, D.C. "game plan" to protect and promote their interests before Congress and federal departments and agencies.