Course Presenters:

	Ron Green focuses his practice on financial compliance, litigation, and defense. He has experience managing comprehensive complaint and compliance management systems and processing complaints from eOscar and the CFPB website. Ron has extensive experience responding to CFPB and state examinations, honed during his role as in-house counsel for a financial service company. His proficiency extends to workplace automation, appellate work, and managing outside counsel, ensuring streamlined and effective legal operations.
	Scott Hyman's legal practice focuses on defending complex class actions and individual litigation; on defending UDAP and unfair competition claims; on advising regarding and defending state regulatory enforcement, examination, and licensing issues; and on advising on cyber-security protection and litigation matters. Scott has served consecutive 2-year terms to the California Department of Financial Protection Innovation's Debt Collection Advisory Committee (2021-2023, 2023-2025), is a Vice-President of the Conference on Consumer Finance Law, and serves as a Fellow of the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers.
	Tomio B. Narita is a partner in San Francisco office of Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP. His practice focuses on defending creditors, debt buyers, collection law firms, finance companies, alternative lenders and collection agencies in consumer litigation in federal and state courts throughout the country, including in class actions arising under the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), and other federal and state laws governing the credit and collection process.

Genevieve Walser-Jolly, Partner at Womble Bond Dickinson, advises on data privacy and security compliance. She also defends individual and consumer class actions. She is a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US) and focuses on U.S. privacy laws. Genevieve is vice chair of the ABA's Privacy Subcommittee, an active member of the IAPP, Vice President of Marketing for the Conference on Consumer Finance Law, and is a Fellow with the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers.
