

Call for Presentations

Due August 10, 2026

The Receivables Management Association International (RMAI) is now accepting presentation proposals for the 2027 RMAI Annual Conference, taking place February 8-11, 2027, at the Aria Resort & Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada.

RMAI's Annual Conference programming further educates industry professionals of the receivables management industry and supports the Receivables Management Certification Program (RMCP). The Annual Conference continues to be the leader in the industry with over 1,700 attendees comprised of buyers, collectors, attorneys, banks and creditors, with the majority being executives, operations, sales & marketing professionals, business development, and compliance officers.

Proposals are not limited to the topics below; however, this year's RMAI Annual Conference attendees expressed an interest in additional content on the following subjects, listed in order of priority:

- Operational best practices
- Consumer trends
- Data and analytics
- AI & Automation
- Litigation

These topics are in addition to the consistently high interest in market developments, compliance, and emerging trends. New and innovative proposals on other relevant topics are always strongly encouraged.

PROPOSAL REQUIREMENTS/CRITERIA

- An interactive and engaging program format
- Audience participation and/or discussion
- Presenters identified and confirmed in advance
  - Please do not include more than one speaker from a company.
- Innovative and insightful content
- Educational focus (no sales pitch)

SUBMIT YOUR PROPOSAL

PREVIEW the Submission Form: It is recommended to review the proposal form first so you can provide a complete proposal.

PROPOSE your Education Session

DEADLINES & TIMELINES

August 10, 2026 – Proposals are due

September 30, 2026 – Notification of Acceptance or Non-Acceptance

October 30, 2026 – Speaker Materials Due (Bio, Photo, Signed Contributor Release Form)

November 13, 2026 – Title and Course Description Due (if not already determined by proposal)

December 9, 2026 – Speaker Registration Deadline (for confirmed speakers only)

January 15, 2027 – PPT Presentations Due (content review is required)